

COMMISSIONER ISSUES PROCLAMATIONS OF ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

Upon requests from fans to recognize athletic excellence by the 2008 Lady Indians, Commissioner Bill Kendall issues Proclamations honoring Towns County High School Star Basketball players Nikki Winn, Amanda Irwin and Head Coach Jim Melton.

The Commissioner is also awarding Certificates of outstanding athletic achievement to all team members and coaches for setting a school record of 28 wins.

Among many outstanding athletic achievements, Junior Nikki Winn is honored as being the only Towns County High School basketball player to be selected "Class A First Team All State" and led the Lady Indians to a school record of 28 wins.

Senior, Amanda Irwin, among other outstanding accomplishments, is recognized as Class A Honorable mention All State Team, while leading the Indians to a school record of 28 wins.

The Proclamation cites Coach Melton's outstanding achievements during his 10-year tenure as head coach of taking his Lady Indians to the State Final Four in 2000 and in 2008 while his 2008 Lady Indians set the school record of 28 wins.

Commissioner Kendall is asking that Towns County Citizens and Business Community join with the Towns County Government in honoring the 2008 Lady Indians and coaches on May 15th.
